From the Conference Minister

Dear Friends,

One of the most important things we, as the Southeast Conference UCC, can do with and for each other is to pray. Prayer connects us despite how many miles are between our congregations. Prayer ties us together with cords that do not break. Prayer reminds all of us that we never journey this life alone. Prayer is needed all the time, but most especially when the worst strikes.

This week I received word that Holy Trinity Community Church, UCC in Nashville experienced a great tragedy. One of the congregation's active members was murdered in his home. It has been all over the Nashville news. The congregation is broken-hearted and grieving. Their pastor, Rev. Dr. Brice Thomas, called me this week requesting prayers from all of us as they grapple with the unimaginable. Please lift this congregation, family, pastor, and community in prayer this week and in the weeks to come. They will feel your love and support. They will know that they do not journey this dark valley alone. They will know that we grieve with and for them.

We are the UCC family of the Southeast. When one of us suffers, we all do. Please join me in carrying the burden of Holy Trinity, Nashville.

Blessings,
Marie

P.S. Don't forget annual meeting is next week! Please join us so we can celebrate together!
